

West Midlands Birth Trauma Association

The West Midlands Birth Trauma Association has been set up to support women and their families in the West Midlands who have suffered traumatic experiences in childbirth.

The charity operates a freephone telephone support service: 0800 046 9263 available Monday-Friday between 4pm and 6pm. For further information visit our website www.westmidlandsbta.org.uk

The group supports the national Birth Trauma Association working with health care providers to improve the standards of maternity care. You can find lots of information and support leaflets on the national Birth Trauma Association website www.birthtraumaassociation.org.uk

Reducing stillbirth and dealing with the aftermath

A free one-day conference aimed at medical and health professionals.

This conference will discuss the physical and psychological trauma women may suffer following a stillbirth and consider changes in medical practice to reduce the occurrence of stillbirth in the future.

Thursday 13th May 2010
